Nominations Being Accepted

- ❖ Distinguished Service Award
- ❖ Community Service Award
- ❖ Young at Heart Award
- ❖ Outstanding Young Physician Award
- ❖ Richard P. Holm, MD, Media Award

These awards are presented annually by the SDSMA to honor physician members and others for their contributions to health care, service to patients, dedication to improving medicine in South Dakota, and service to the SDSMA.

- Please consider nominating physicians and other supporters who are deserving of recognition.
- An individual may work right alongside of you, or serve on a committee with you, or volunteer in your organization or community, or have made a significant impact in the medical profession.
- Help your colleagues get the recognition they deserve and complete a nomination form. Many South Dakota physicians and supporters of the medical community go unrecognized. Nominate them today!

Selection Process

Nominations submitted to the SDSMA office must come from current SDSMA members or a group of members, and will be reviewed for completeness and eligibility. Incomplete nominations will not be considered. Following review by the SDSMA staff and the SDSMA Committee on Ethics & Judicial Affairs, nominations are presented to the SDSMA Policy Council for a vote in each category. Award recipients will be announced at the Presidential Banquet held in conjunction with the SDSMA Annual Leadership Conference on May 31, 2019.

Nomination Deadline:
March 1, 2019
5 pm CT

For questions about the awards and nomination process, contact Elizabeth Reiss, Director of Membership & Communications, at 605.336.1965 or ereiss@sdsma.org.

Award Categories & Descriptions

Distinguished Service Award

This award is presented to an SDSMA physician member or layperson who has contributed outstanding service to medicine in South Dakota.

Young at Heart Award

This award is presented annually by the SDSMA to honor physician members who have helped young physicians as a mentor, role model, and leader as they have started their career. This award recognizes physicians who have encouraged young physicians to assume leadership roles, get involved in organized medicine or community projects, or guide them in starting a new practice and survive the day-to-day experiences of practicing medicine.

- Physicians eligible for this award must be over the age of 40.
- Physicians must be in practice for at least five years.

Community Service Award

This award is presented to an SDSMA physician member who has demonstrated exemplary involvement in community affairs in South Dakota.

Outstanding Young Physician Award

This award is presented to an SDSMA physician member under 40 years of age or within their first eight years of professional practice after residency or fellowship training. The recipient will have shown outstanding achievements in the area of dedication and service to community as well as contributions to the medical society, such as through local, state or national organizations.

Richard P. Holm, MD, Media Award

This award is presented annually to recognize outstanding medical and health care reporting, coverage, or promotion in the media.

Nominations for any of the above awards must be made by a current SDSMA member or group of members.

SDSMA staff are not eligible for these awards.
